

WINE & CHEESE OF THE WEEK

Morro Bay Split Estates "Sur Lie" Chardonnay 2009

From California's central coast. 100% Chardonnay and 13.9% Alc. Tropical fruit nose featuring a slice of fresh cut pineapple. Full body with spice and a pleasing vanilla oak note linger in the finish. Sweet flavor on the palate is from sur-lie aging the wine on primary yeast lees for 6 months. A versatile style of wine that can be served chilled with fine cuisine or a glass with friends.

Edel de Cleron

For Vacherin lovers, Edel de Cleron should fit your tastes perfectly. Produced in the same part of Eastern France, the French-Comte, Edel de Cleron is a luscious cow's milk cheese, wrapped with a strip of spruce bark around its perimeter to support the cheese, which is runny when ripe. Made with pasteurized cow's milk, it has a Camembert-like bloomy rind and an earthy, mushroomy aroma.
